

SPRUCE RUN-WOMANCARE ALLIANCE

Rural Advocate, Rural Outreach Advocate and High Risk Response Domestic Violence Advocate

Spruce Run-Womancare Alliance, the domestic violence resource center serving Penobscot and Piscataquis Counties in Maine, currently has three positions open:

- Rural Advocate
- Rural Outreach Advocate
- High Risk Response Domestic Violence Advocate

Candidates should enjoy working independently in a friendly, fast-paced, collectivist setting, and have a strong commitment to ending domestic abuse.

The Rural Advocate and Rural Outreach Advocate positions are responsible for the coordination of community collaborations with a wide variety of community partners to identify, assess and appropriately respond to victims of domestic abuse in rural areas. The advocates will work to expand and enhance victim services in the rural areas of Penobscot and Piscataquis Counties.

The High Risk Response Domestic Violence Advocate is responsible for working as a part of the Community Response Team to develop programming that will ensure an effective response to high-risk domestic violence situations and victims of human trafficking.

The successful candidates will have experience with program development, knowledge of relevant community systems, and excellent organizational and communication skills. Experience working with people affected by abuse and with consensus decision-making is a plus. All staff participate in crisis intervention, advocacy and community response work.

These are full-time positions with a starting salary of $30,867 per year plus generous benefits.

Please send your resume, cover letter and an essay of views on domestic abuse to the following address:
